Application for an emergency alien's passport

Use this form to apply for an emergency alien's passport. If you do not have any documents that will serve as a passport and do not have possibility of obtaining one, the Swedish Migration Agency can issue an emergency alien's passport in certain cases. The Migration Agency can issue an emergency alien's passport for a single journey to or from Sweden. An emergency alien's passport is normally valid for a maximum of seven months. If you want to apply for a normal alien's passport, you should fill in form 191011.

Parents or legal guardians can also use this form to apply for an emergency alien's passport on behalf of a child who is under 18. Normally, one or both of the child's parents are the guardians but a guardian or specially appointed guardian can also be a legal guardian. As the parent (legal guardian) you fill in and sign the application. If there are two parents (legal guardians), you must both consent to the Migration Agency issuing an emergency alien's passport for the child. You must also submit the form "Consent for the Swedish Migration Agency to issue an alien's passport for a child under the age of 18" (247011).

Please note that you must submit your application in person, filled in, at one of the Migration Agency's Service Centres or at a Swedish mission abroad. Remember that everybody applying for an alien's passport must come in person, including children. There is normally an application fee for an alien's passport. You can pay the fee with a credit or debit card when you hand in your application, or ask for a payment slip and pay later.
