

Questionnaire on maintenance and housing

For family members of employees, athletes and employees ICT

You have family members who have applied for a residence permit in Sweden to live with you in Sweden. We ask you to answer the questions below within two weeks and send the form into the Swedish Migration Agency. It is important that you answer the questions as carefully and in as much detail as possible. If we do not receive your reply in time or if it is incomplete, we may decide on your family's application based on the information we have. This may mean that we refuse the application. More information is available on our website www.migrationsverket.se. Please fill in the form on the computer. This helps our handling of the case.

Do not forget to fill in the case number of the application and to sign it.

Examples of documents that you should enclose to the form

In the form, you must answer a few questions regarding your maintenance and your accommodations. Below are examples of documents that you can enclose to show that you meet the maintenance requirement. If you have other documents that can support the information you have provided about how you support yourself and your housing situation, you can submit them.

You do not need to send this page with information to the Swedish Migration Agency.

Income

If are employed

- If you have new employment that is covered by your work permit, the Swedish Migration Agency wants a copy of your employment contract. If you are working in the employment for which you have been granted a work permit, you only need to send in your employment contract if it has changed since you were granted a permit.
- Salary specification for the past month. The specification must state the net salary, any salary supplements and salary deductions, and the name of the employee and employer.

If you are self-employed or are a partner in a general or limited partnership

- A copy of your final tax notice for the previous income year.
- A copy of your income tax return, together with a copy of your NE or N3A schedules, for the previous income year.
- A copy of a preliminary tax decision for the current year from the Swedish Tax Agency, or an account statement from your tax account for at least three months where paid preliminary tax is clearly shown.
- If you have business activities abroad, you can send in other documents that show that you have a regular return on the business activities during your permit period.

If you have other income or allowances

- An explanation of what income or allowances you have and documents that support this information. This may, for example, be a certificate from the Swedish Social Insurance Agency (Försäkringskassan) where it is stated what type of compensation it concerns and how much compensation you receive.

Housing

If you have rental accommodations

- Your lease. The lease must state the rent, the name of the tenant and the landlord and the term of the lease.

If you have bought a home or apartment

- A purchase contract or other deed of transfer. The document must state that you own your dwelling.
