Annex to "Application for a Swedish work permit", "Application for ICT-permit to work in Sweden" and "Application for an EU Blue Card for work in Sweden"

The union statement is part of the information about the employment. It is the employer who must obtain the statement from the trade union that organises employees in the relevant occupational area. This applies regardless of whether the employer is bound by a collective agreement or not. The union assesses whether the terms of employment offered are in line with terms pursuant to collective agreements or generally accepted practices in the profession or industry.

The union must send the signed statement to the employer.
